At 4 pm, meet your skipper for a welcome and safety briefing before setting sail to the Island of Brač. Known for its stunning coastlines and rich heritage, Brač is home to Vidova Gora, the highest peak on Croatian islands. Famous for its exquisite white stone, Brač has provided materials for iconic structures like Diocletian's Palace and even the UN building. Explore Brač's "Olive Island" reputation by walking the Olive Trail, and visit the Cukrov Family Olive Oil Museum. The stunning Zlatni Rat beach, known for its unique shape, beckons sunbathers and water sports enthusiasts alike. Meanwhile, Supetar, the island's vibrant hub, offers delightful restaurants and essential supplies for adventurers.

DAY 2 (SUNDAY) | Brač Island - Hvar Island - Pakleni Islands

Hvar, the sunniest island in Croatia, offers a perfect mix of beaches, nightlife, and history. Start at the iconic Hvar Fort, with stunning views of the town and Adriatic Sea, then explore Stari Grad, a UNESCO World Heritage Site rich in ancient Greek history. Relax at Dubovica Beach or visit the nearby Pakleni Islands, ideal for swimming in clear waters. As evening falls, enjoy fresh seafood at a seaside restaurant before heading to Carpe Diem, Hvar's top nightlife spot.

DAY 3 (MONDAY) | Hvar Island - Šćedro Island - Pelješac Peninsula

Stay on Hvar and explore the renowned vineyards in the Hvar region, such as those in Sveta Nedelja or Ivan Dolac. These vineyards offer a taste of some of the finest local wines and an opportunity to learn about the region's rich winemaking traditions. If you prefer a peaceful retreat, you can also head towards the tranquil island of Šćedro.

Later in the day, set sail towards Lovište on the Pelješac Peninsula. With 5-6 hours of sailing ahead, you'll have ample time to take in the serene beauty of the sea and surrounding sights.

DAY 4 (TUESDAY) | Pelješac Peninsula - Korčula Island - Mljet Island

Set sail from Lovište to the historic city of Korčula, the fifth island in our itinerary. Known as one of the most serene islands of our adventure, Korčula was named by the Greeks for its dense pine forest - Korkyra Melaina, meaning "Black Corfu". Korčula Town, often known as "Little Dubrovnik", boasts impressive city walls, medieval squares, churches, and palaces - which still hold secrets about the life of the renowned explorer Marco Polo. When in Korčula, we recommend stopping by a local wine bar to taste premium varieties such as Grk, Plavac Mali, and Pošip, or visit some of the family wineries for an even more authentic experience! Continue the journey to the serene Island of Mljet.

DAY 5 (WEDNESDAY) | Mljet Island

Explore the unspoiled oasis of Mljet National Park, renowned for its saltwater lakes and lush landscapes that, according to legend, captivated Odysseus for seven years. The park covers most of the island, including Great Lake and Small Lake, Saint Mary's Benedictine monastery, and Polače, the best natural anchorage in the Adriatic. Besides a Dalmatian lunch and swimming, the island offers amazing snorkelling opportunities. The seabed is a must-see for divers, especially in the lakes, where snorkelers can spot noble pen shells and other sea creatures. For an active day, enjoy canoeing, cycling, or hiking, while the island's serene atmosphere makes it perfect for a romantic getaway.
